

LABOR LEADERS JOIN THE BASIC TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP WEBINAR CONDUCTED UNDER WODP

Fifty-five (55) labor leaders and trade union frontliners benefited during the first batch of training on Basic Trade Union Leadership facilitated by the National Congress of Unions in the Sugar Industry of the Philippines (NACUSIP) on June 17, 2022 via Zoom. The training was conducted through the training grant availed by NACUSIP under the Workers' Organization Development Program (WODP) of the Bureau of Labor Relations (BLR).

In his welcome remarks, Mr. Rolando Dela Cruz, President of NACUSIP, expressed his gratitude to the BLR for the training assistance granted to NACUSIP under WODP. The NACUSIP was granted with six (6) trainings, composed of two batches with three sets of trainings, under the said program.

The conducted training on Basic Trade Union Leadership aimed to demonstrate to labor leaders the various leadership styles they can adopt to successfully lead their respective labor organizations. The participants were introduced to the theories of leadership and ethics of a good leader. They also shared their experiences with the former leaders of their organizations, and further determined their own leadership styles. They were also oriented with the different Microsoft Office tools such as Word, Excel and Powerpoint, which they can use during their respective organizational meetings and overall facilitation of their labor organizations.

END/Katrina del Rosario