

BLR Produces Two New Lawyers after Passing the “Best Bar Ever”

The 2020 and 2021 bar examinations held on 12 April 2022 was dubbed as the “best bar ever” because it is so far the largest in history with 11,790 registered examinees of the combined 2020 and 2021 batches after two years of postponement due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Out of the 11,790 registered examinees, the Bureau of Labor Relations was honored that two of its employees, Mr. Ramoncito Roma and Ms. Joycelyn Amazona-Lacopia, were among the 8,241 who successfully passed the bar examination.

Atty. Roma began his career with the Bureau as Labor and Employment Officer II. Through the years, he gained extensive knowledge and experience in government service. He is a very diligent employee which led him to his current position, Labor and Employment Officer III.

On another hand, Atty. Lacopia started in the Bureau as Labor and Employment Officer II. Spanning over eleven years of service in the Department, she held different positions and progressed to where she is today. As Supervising Labor and Employment Officer, she showed her strong dedication at work by pursuing its quest for better service delivery.

As working students, both of them had a hard time balancing their work and school responsibilities. Their journey was not easy. It was difficult but with unmatched and valuable experience that they can be proud of.

The Bureau is full of pride that they have endured every step of their way and are now called, “Atty. Ramoncito Roma and Atty. Joycelyn Amazona-Lacopia”. They took their oaths as new lawyers on 02 May 2022 and signed the Roll of Attorneys on May and June, respectively.
